Altar and Ring

A Wedding-Day Souvenir

Compiled by G. B. F. HALLOCK, D.D.

Nothing to equal it at the price. Printed on heavy enameled book paper. Pretty gold title design on cover. Size 6½ x 7½.

Not a mere jumble of poetry: it has an idea running through it; it begins with suggestions on courtship, then the ceremony, then the congratulations of friends, etc. The poems celebrating the all-important occasions appeal to heart and mind alike in words of tender sympathy and counsel for the newly-wedded pair.

It is a gem within and without. Every single selection is a literary jewel. The whole of the get-up of the book moreover—the printing, the binding, and the cover,—is dainty and effective.—Rev. A. H. Huizinga, D.D.

A New Age in the Making!

Anti-Christian Speculations are Losing!

Thought is Moving!

Shall the New World be Christian?

This depends upon how much time, money and personal effort Christian Men and Women are willing to invest in knowing and witnessing Christian Truth.

The next generation of Christians must know their faith as the past generation did not. They must know it as a body of truth. They must know its powerful evidences.

Christian Faith and Life

fits just these needs for several reasons:

(1) It is theological in its point of view, and Biblical.

(2) It is exactingly careful in its statements.

(3) It is appreciative of all that is verified in science; but claims the right to discriminate between mere speculation and truth. It dismisses all forms of deterministic thought as not only false and destructive; but as idle, unverifiable, unscientific.

(4) It is comprehensive, informing.

(5) It is appreciative of every value that will stand the test of Christ wherever proposed.

(6) It is fearless, yet gentlemanly.

(7) It is solid, yet interesting.

A TRIAL SUBSCRIPTION

bringing you three great issues, October, November and December, will be accepted at fifty cents. NEW subscriptions for the calendar year of 1932 will be accepted now and the remaining numbers for this year will be sent without additional charge.

Christianity and Positivism

By JAS. MCCOSH, D.D.,LL.D., Pres. Princeton College. 12 mo., 370 pp., $1.75.

Special Price, $1.25, prepaid

"The thinking is generally so clear, and the style so animated and luminous, that any person of average intelligence and culture may understand and enjoy the discussion; and no such person who has begun to read the work will be likely to rest satisfied till he has finished it. This book grapples directly with the vital questions. Every reader must admire its fairness."—N. Y. Independent.

Christ and His Religion

By REV. JOHN REID. 12 mo., 311 pp., $1.50.

Special Price, $1.00, prepaid

Not an ingathering of threadbare suggestions, but a mine of fresh nuggets within the reach of all. There is a combination of depth of thought and simplicity of expression.

"Keen and clear conception of truth mark this volume. The author is a man of thought, and his calm and well-balanced views give a charm to his writing. There is strength of truth in every page."—Christian Union.

Concessions of Liberalists to Orthodoxy

By DAN'L DOCHESTER, D.D. 344 pp., $1.50.

Special Price, $1.00, prepaid

This work was originally prepared as a course of lectures, and was delivered before the School of Theology of Boston University. It is worthy of all commendation for the extensive research shown by the author, and the presentation of the three cardinal topics: The Deity of Christ, the Atonement, and Endless Punishment.

"A rich army for offensive and defensive warfare against theological error."—Religious Herald.

"The doctor's style is singularly pure and candid, and the diction and dignity, scholarship and research is manifest in every page."—West. Chris. Advocate.

Voices of the Soul Answered in God

By JOHN REID. 374 pp., 4th Edition, $1.50.

Special Price, $1.00, prepaid

The soul needs a way to reach God, a way to become holy, a way to become happy. Hence the book is divided into three parts; it shows how the wants of the mind can be met in a Redeemer, Restorer, and Satisfier. Meditation must come first, then restoration, then satisfaction.

"That the soul of man can find its hopes realized, its want satisfied, its fears quieted and its measures filled in God alone, is the leading thought of this calm and powerful book. The presentation is most serious, original and suggestive."—N. Y. Observer.

Footprints of Sorrow

By REV. JOHN REID. 12 mo., 173 pp., $1.25.

Special Price, $1.00, prepaid

Not a devotional book, altho veins of devotion are found in it. It does not strictly relate to the afflictions of man, to piety on its sombre side, or to the absolute gloom of grief. It rather calls attention to certain phases of sorrow; giving shape to our consciousness upon the subject, and seeking to impress the mind in a way that seems right.

"The author considers his subject under all its aspects, first showing the source of sorrow, then the varieties of form it assumes, and its benefits and consolations."—Christian Intelligencer.

Pivot Words of Scripture

By REV. PHILIP B. POWER, M.A. 353 pp., $1.50.

Special Price, $1.25, prepaid

A pivot being a small point on which something else turns, the title of this volume seems to be very descriptive of those little words of Holy Scripture upon which turns the actual interpretation of a passage, and to which we are indebted for some of the most powerful teachings of God's word, whether they relate to His mercy or His wrath, as in cases of "for," "through," "yet," "then," "but," "and."

"It is pointed, crisp, fresh, and dealing with live issues."—Christian World.

"Sterling in sense."—West. Christian Advocate.

"A thoroughly instructive and readable volume."—United Presbyterian.

Excerpts from reviews showing how

The Apostles' Creed

By HAROLD PAUL SLOAN

Introduction by Bishop Horace M. DuBose

is received. There is an abundance of such testimony. It is true to the fundamentals. Bible students will profit by reading it. But read these excerpts:

———One of the best chapters is the second on the Miraculous Birth (pp. 73ff.), which is worth the price of the book.—John Alfred Faulkner.

Of this book of Dr. Sloan's, The Apostles' Creed, Professor Faulkner goes on to say,——— with a large fund of intelligence and an occasional illustration, with verbiage and diffuseness at a minimum, and with the conviction of a Paul or a Peter . . . If all Protestant clergy could immerse themselves in the atmosphere and be touched with the spiritual contagion of this book, a NEW DAY IS AT THE DOORS.

The Expository Times, Edinburgh, Scotland: We have no doubt that these addresses have served to build up Dr. Sloan's congregation in the Christian faith, and we regard them as worthy of publication.

Dr. George W. Henson: The book reaches its highest pinnacle in the chapter on "Forgiveness of Sin." Here the author deals with the sin problem in a masterful way and grips the soul when, after showing the futility of sin, he describes Calvary as the force which again brings the unity of the race with God.

Thanksgiving Sermons and Outline Addresses

AN AID FOR PASTORS

Compiled and edited by William D. Ketcham, D.D. 12 mo., beautiful cloth, 329 pages—Sold by dealers at $1.50.

SPECIAL OFFER, PREPAID, $1.00

Sermons and Outlines of Sermons and Addresses, by prominent clergymen of Europe and America selected by the Editor with great care. The Christian minister is lacking in research and ill-qualified for his duty who fails to glean and appropriate from every field, with prayerful care all help available. Those who have often traversed the field in search of themes and material, and therefore, whose skill and wisdom in selection is matured, can well render to those of lesser experience wholesome aid. A single suggestion may open in the reader's mind an unexpected fountain of thought from which shall flow healthful reflection and appropriate discourse.

What is Said About the Volume

Covers the entire scope of the service peculiar to Thanksgiving Day. Ripe with suggestions and fruitful with hints and helps, such as may start the student upon a track of his own.—Central Christian Advocate.

A real aid. It suggests subjects and their treatment.—Christian Standard.

Thoroughly practical.—Lutheran Observer.

Able, evangelical and edifying.—St. Louis Presbyterian.

Very suggestive to all preachers, and particularly helpful to young men.—Dr. J. W. Hamilton.

FRANK J. BOYER, Publisher, Reading, Pa.

These volumes always sold for $2.50 per volume, or $16.00 the set of 8 volumes —and they are fully worth that price to any minister.
